Broaddview
Spirituality, Justice and Ethical Living

MEDIA KIT 2020
New name. Same award-winning journalism.

In our 190 years of publishing history (making us North America’s oldest continuously published magazine), we’ve evolved to meet the needs of our readers. Our new name, Broadview*, reflects the open-mindedness and inclusivity that we share with our readers as we continue to explore what it means to live a purpose-filled, values-driven life.

With compelling stories about spirituality, ethical living and social justice issues, Broadview creates a community of like-minded Canadians who care — instilling hope and inspiring action in these challenging times.

*With roots dating back to 1829, Broadview is the fourth name in the publication’s history. Most recently known as The United Church Observer, the publication maintains an affiliation with The United Church of Canada, but is editorially independent and separately incorporated.
Our mission

Broadview's mission is to inspire and engage our audience — progressive Christians and those who share these values — with stories about spirituality, ethical living and social justice, as well as news and perspectives about The United Church of Canada.

We understand this means being both introspective and outward-looking. It requires us to examine our beliefs and values, and to live and act accordingly. It calls us to engage deeply with the justice issues of our day — and to believe that hope lies in caring profoundly for one another and for our planet.
